MEERA METAL INDUSTRY

In year 1994, Meera Metal Industries with great determination started its journey in manufacturing and developing of stainless steel kitchen utensils. At, Meera Metals initially we used to do the job work for all big brands in the industry.

It was year 2010, when MEERA EXCLUSIVE was born, slowly and steadily it is becoming a household name. Now, at Meera Metal we are highly focused in designing, developing and manufacturing superior quality stainless steel cooking utensils. We have team of experience engineers, designers and highly skilled workers whose prime focus is to develop wide range of kitchenware and household products that suit the dynamic need of Indian Kitchen. At Meera Exclusive we never compromise on business ethics, customer satisfaction and quality production.

QUALITY CHECK

Meera Metal Industry strives hard to achieve high quality products under proper guidance of trained professional during the entire manufacturing process and through stringent quality at every stage of production. To further improve the quality and achieve better results, our management is exploring the way of implementation of several quality checks.
